Lessons (all 1 hour)

Spanking & Beyond - This practical, in-person lesson covers the incorporation of spanking and other forms of impact play into the bedroom. Additionally, we will explore how to craft an erotic narrative with your partner during play and prioritise safety while having fun. As part of the session, you'll receive a worksheet summarising what you've learned, along with some bonus material.

Rope Bondage - Participate in a practical, in-person lesson on how to create a beautiful rope corset on your partner. This versatile tie is gender-fluid and suitable for all body types.

Pleasure Zones & Beyond - An in-person introduction to nipple play, intimate area impact play, and the art of finding the perfect balance between pleasure and pain to cater to your evolving desires and those of your play partner.

Sexual Domination - Explore the practical and psychological aspects of sexual dominance and submission. Learn how to introduce BDSM into your bedroom, discover your and your partner's preferences, navigate solo or couple participation in sex parties, create personalised play rituals, and explore topics like self-pleasure, monogamy and non-monogamy.

Backdoor & Beyond - This introductory lesson covers all aspects of anal play. Learn how to prepare mentally and physically, understand why it feels good on different bodies, and prioritise safety and hygiene. We will explore warm-up techniques, lube options, the pros and cons of using poppers, and how to use a strap-on. Additionally, we'll discuss how to make the experience pleasurable for both the giver and receiver, various positioning tips, and how to find the prostate.
